OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Friday - 24 July 1964

1. [REDACTED] Chairman Carl Vinson, CIA Subcommittee 25X1 of House Armed Services, was provided a briefing on Soviet missile reliability by Bruce Clarke. Fred Payne of DOD did a similar briefing on U. S. missiles. The briefing went very well. A report on this was forwarded to the Director.

2. [REDACTED] Again attempted unsuccessfully to make arrangements for a meeting with the Director and Senator Russell. 25X1

3. [REDACTED] Furnished to Al Westphal, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, certain biographic information concerning [REDACTED] on a nonattributable basis. 25X1

4. [REDACTED] Mrs. Pope in the office of Congressman B. F. Sisk (Calif.) called in behalf of a constituent who was writing the Congressman to obtain a copy of a paper which he said was put out by CIA and published recently in the newspaper. The report contained information on cybernetics in the Soviet Union. Mrs. Pope was told we would look into the matter and advise later. 25X1
